DWAYNE COOPER

Society Treasurer Dwayne Cooper comes to us from Austin, Texas where real life finds him as Director of Finance & Administration of the nonprofit Long Center for the Performing Arts. A 35-year Society member, Dwayne found barbershop thru the Society's original Young Men in Harmony program in Bloomington, Illinois in 1976. He just completed his two-year term as President of the Southwestern District.

Dwayne is a certified chorus director having served as music director in Plano, Texas; Jackson, Mississippi; Austin, Texas; and is currently directing the New Braunfels, Texas Hill Country Chorus. His wife of 30 years, Barbara, is the daughter of "Golden Oldie" Robert and Betty Moore from Bloomington, Illinois. This makes their son Daniel a third-generation barbershopper, and he competed in the college quartet contest in Philly last summer. Rounding out the family, daughter Mackenzie is a freshman at the University of Oklahoma.

Another "been there, done that" guy as to all things barbershop, please give Dwayne a big Pioneer District Welcome when you see him!
