RICHARD G. POWELL (DICK)

Society President-Elect Dick Powell is delighted to have this chance to spend time with the Pioneer District barbershoppers as the BHS International Board representative to the District Convention.

He has held many leadership positions in the BHS at the chapter, district, and Society levels, including two years as Society Executive Vice President and three years as a Society Board Member-at-Large. He served as President of the Mid-Atlantic District immediately prior to that.

As well as singing lead in his local chapter and singing bass with both a mixed-voice community chorus and a mixed-voice barbershop chorus, he serves as Secretary of the Board of the Linwood Center, a facility dedicated to the support of autistic children and adults and their families in their quest to lead extraordinary lives.

Currently fully and happily retired, Dick is a certified instructor for Chapter Presidents and a certified Contest Administrator. He sang with two registered quartets of no particular merit, but had a wonderful time nonetheless.

Dick and his wife Roxanne have seven children, six grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter. They reside in Crofton (MD).
