

States now, and her husband, Sergeant Thomas J. Miller, will be discharged August 15. She's also back with us in the New Center, but at a different location. She has taken a new position as a stenographer with the American Manufacturers Assn., New Center Bldg. We're happy to see you back, Marlene, and wish you lots of luck on your new job.

ABC network special, as well as locally on the Bob Hynes Morning Show and Dwayne Riley's Feature Story. Bill is the tenor and spokesman for the Sharp-lifters. Our congratulations to Bill and his quartet on this latest honor. We know that they will do a lot to help cheer up our hospitalized servicemen.

* * *

* * *

BARBERSHOP QUARTET singing is the number one hobby of Bill Wickstrom, Michigan director of the U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans Employment Service, Boulevard Bldg. He was recently notified that his quartet, the Sharp-lifters, has been chosen by the U.S.O. to entertain our wounded servicemen in the Far East. Bill and other other members of his group leave this Friday, August 15, for a 20-day tour which will include visits to military hospitals in Japan, Okinawa, the Philippines, Guam and Hawaii. This recognition is the latest of many honors accorded the Sharp-lifters, an internationally high ranking champion Detroit quartet, formed two years ago. The group has entertained from coast to coast and appeared on television, nationally on the Joey Bishop Show and an